

Simplified License Agreement

This agreement (“Agreement”) is made between SoftwareTools.com, Inc. (“SoftwareTools”), a North Carolina Corporation, and the company or individual purchasing the SoftwareTools products (“the Company”). The products may be software, data, web services or other products or services licensed by SoftwareTools (“Product” or “Products”).

WHEREAS, the Company wishes to license the Products from SoftwareTools and both parties agree:

Use Grant/Updates: Subject to the provisions of the Agreement, SoftwareTools hereby grants the Company a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the SoftwareTools Products ordered by the Company. The Company shall periodically receive or have access to Product updates from SoftwareTools as they become available throughout the term of the Agreement at no additional charge.

Term: The term of this Agreement for SoftwareTools Products commences on the date the Products are ordered by the Company and shall continue in effect for a period of one year, unless otherwise specified. This Agreement may be renewed for additional one-year periods at the then current price by mutual agreement of the parties.

Personal Use License: This is for use by an individual and is not to be redistributed to any others.

Commercial Use License: This is for use by an organization or company. The Products may be accessed via a network, a company intranet or through a web service. The Products may also be used on a public-facing web site (a single domain) for applications which do not directly generate revenue, such as for a store locator. A Single Use License is obtained when one copy of the Product is purchased.

Commercial Multi-Site License: This for multiple internal use applications at all Company locations. The Products may also be used on multiple public-facing web sites for applications which do not directly generate revenue, such as for a store locator. A Company Use License is obtained when two copies of the Product is purchased.

Redistribution License (to use in commercial products): This is for using the Product(s) in commercial applications that are sold to others such as data appending, data validation, etcetera. This also allows the Product(s) to be used on multiple domains for the company or individual purchasing the Products. A Redistribution License is obtained when three copies of the Product is purchased.

Redistribution Requirements: In order to redistribute the Products, the Company agrees that they will not be selling a competing product or service. If in doubt, please contact SoftwareTools for clarification / approval. Also, the Company agrees that they will make the SoftwareTools information difficult to extract into a useable format (usually this means that the data will be put in a binary or encrypted format). The Company will be responsible for upgrading their customers as needed.

Competition: Whether redistributing or not, the company also agrees that it will not compete with SoftwareTools, nor provide any portion of our data to a SoftwareTools competitor.
